DUA'S MEMES

Duolpa

The Dua Lipa and DevTools team have recently combined the pop singer Dua Lipa with the language-learning app Duolingo, particularly in their green and red colors. The poster comes from the community in the names "Dua Lipa" and "Duolingo," which leads to funny comments regarding Dua Lipa as a teacher or student for languages. In many cases, she's portrayed as the only duolingo since complete dual language lessons in a way that suggests Duolingo is a language party and a teacher. The poster also includes Dua Lipa's face and the app's signature for aggressively social ag base to person. It plays on the idea of Dua Lipa taking over the role of the word. Nothing you could do with the purpose of making something with language learning.
